

Name: Pantry Diner
 Date: June 21, 2005
 Time: 8:12 P.M.
 Place: Rockville Centre
 Researcher: Johnny Moore

Methodological Questions	Observations
Why was there no communication?	1. A male
Are you a couple?	2. Reading the newspaper
Did you have an argument?	3. Eating steak, potatoes, salad
Do you live in this area?	4. Wearing short pants, sandals, polo shirt
What was so interesting in the newspaper?	5. Sunglasses pinned to polo shirt
	6. No communication with other person (female) at the table
Theoretical Notes	7. Completely turned away from table with paper in his lap
The couple were regulars at the restaurant	8. Eye contact is none existent even when he cuts his steak or eats his potatoes
This was routine for them	9. Left table without saying anything to individual there with him
They felt at home	10. Returned and resumed reading paper
They were bored	11. Picked up check, went to the counter, paid check
A disagreement had occurred	12. Individuals left restaurant together but with no communication